Frank H. Fairs, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Missouri, is quoted in a Kansas City Star as saying:

"I stand four square behind the President who vetoed the Volstead enforcement act because he believed it too drastic. I don't believe it is right that a farmer should be denied to make his apples into cider. I believe that the farmer's wife should have the right to gather grapes and press out the juice and because the juice ferments I do not believe she should be made a criminal."

If Mr. Fairs is quoted correctly he is making statements relative to the Volstead code that are misleading. The farmer can legally manufacture vinegar and fruit juice is not intoxicating in fact are not under the ban. Those who wish to amend the Volstead code are more concerned about the welfare of the brewer than they are of the welfare of the farmer. Their effort is to let down the more than one-half of 1 per cent alcohol.

The nomination of Alf Taylor for governor of Tennessee by the republicans came as a surprise. Mr. Taylor was claimed to be too old for consideration, but he has proved to be a very lively old boy, and gathered lots of votes wherever he went. His fox-hunting stories showed him to be one of the people, and drew voters closer to him. He promised nothing, and if he discharges the duties of governor—if elected—in a plain, simple manner, ever mindful that the people are seeking relief from taxation and not hypothetical perfection, it might prove a blessing to the state.

God grant liberty only to those who love it and is always ready to guard and defend it. Let our object be our country. And by the blessing of God, may that country itself become a vast and splendid monument, not of oppression and terror but of wisdom, of peace and of liberty, upon which the world may gaze with admiration forever! --- Daniel Webster.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

It is difficult to understand how politicians of one party can fight each other in a most abusive manner, and yet when the campaign is over and one set is defeated, pledge each other loyalty and complete submission. The manner in which the anti-Roberts forces caterwaul their allegiance to the governor and his machine in their defeat is disgusting. They pledge their support to the very measures they fought viciously, and had nothing too mean to characterize. It is disgusting.

About one-fourth of the United States, or 550,000,000 acres is in forests. Forests publicly owned contain about one-fifth of all the timber standing. The remaining four-fifths is privately owned. The original forest of the country covered an area of 850,000,000 acres, containing a greater quantity and variety of timber than on any area of similar size in the world. The present rate of cutting for all purposes exceeds the annual growth of the forests.

Your opinion may not be worth very much but you can make it worth much less by giving it when it is not wanted.

"Felt Like Eating"

Man and Wife, All Run-Down from Farm Work, Were Greatly Helped by Ziron.

"MY WIFE and I, after a hard spring on the farm, were tired and run-down," says Mr. E. B. Mulkey, of Route 1, Acworth, Ga. "We neither felt well. I knew my blood was bad, as I had little boils on the back of my neck."

"We felt we needed a builder. We had heard of Ziron and thought it must be what we needed. It certainly was. We took it faithfully, and after a week or such a matter we began to feel better. My wife felt like cooking,

BIG REVIVAL AT SO. PITTSBURG

So. Pittsburg, Aug. 10.—The great revival meeting began at the Tabernacle at this place Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the Rev. Jas. Deik, ex trapeze performer, preaching his opening sermon on prayer to a large congregation embracing all the local churches. The discourse was pronounced a wonderful one by all those who heard it. The evangelist's voice was not in the best of trim, owing to a strenuous campaign just closed in Nashville.

The large chorus is being directed by Prof. G. E. Vinaroff, who is a soloist and director of wide reputation and his work here is meeting with the approval of all. Mrs. Vinaroff, pianist and children's worker, has become very popular with the people and is doing a splendid work.

Large crowds are attending the services each afternoon and night and the outlook for a sweeping revival is bright.

There will be a special night set aside for the people of Whitwell. Also special nights for Sequachee and Jasper and Bridgeport.

"Ziron sure did us good. It made us both feel stronger and better for the fall work, which everyone knows is 'home work' on a farm. My wife began to dry up, though just at first they seemed worse."

"We are much better and can highly recommend Ziron, and gladly do so for it sure did us good."

Ziron is a safe, reliable, tonic medicine, good for men, women and children, when an iron tonic is indicated. It is easy to take and contains no habit-forming drugs. Ask your druggist or dealer.

We have often wondered why more men didn't use their wives for their stenographers and have come to the conclusion that it is because a man cannot dictate to his wife.—Collinsville (Ala.) Courier.

It Helps!

There can be no doubt as to the merit of Cardui, the woman's tonic, in the treatment of many troubles peculiar to women. The thousands of women who have been helped by Cardui in the past 40 years, is conclusive proof that it is a good medicine for women who suffer. It should help you, too.

IN MEMORY OF JAMES VINCENT HOOPER

James Vincent Hooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hooper, died Wednesday, July 21, at his home in Whitwell, Tenn. He had been ill twenty-four days with typhoid and pneumonia.

He leaves a father, mother, one sister and four brothers to mourn his death. He was sixteen years old and had graduated from the Whitwell Grammar School, ranking high in his class. Everything possible was done to restore him to health and strength, but he failed to rally. He bore his sufferings with patience and fortitude.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church, South, with Rev. Phenix, the pastor, officiating.

He was a consistent member of the M. E. Sunday school and Epworth League. The altar and casket were covered with flowers, tokens of admiration and esteem of sorrowing friends. The teachers and eighth grade pupils loved him for his fine manly disposition and his sense of right. He had the distinction of attending the full year of school without being absent, tardy or missing a class.

He was laid to rest in the Walker cemetery Thursday evening with the following as pall bearers: Eugene, Guy and Raymond Hooper, James Kelly, Harry Turner and Jesse Barnes. The grave was banked with floral offerings from the teachers, eighth grade, Epworth League, Eastern Star, the family and friends.

"A precious one from us is gone,
And a place in our hearts is still;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled."
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon His love has given;
And though his body moulders here
His soul is safe in heaven."

We hope that sheriff-eleet, Ike Sartain, of Grundy county, will determine to become the kind of law enforcer and peace officer that we need. I am sure he will have the support of the best element and to that element he owes his election.

Too long have Grundy county officers been delinquent in ferreting out crime and running it to the earth, and the result is men have been killed and no one punished. Saturday Jas. Smith's oldest son was shot and killed by someone while at his work. There are some men who impeach everybody who favor the enforcement of the law. Such men are not good citizens. This boy was killed probably by some boy who held a grudge against him and probably had heard the lawless gang tell what they would do. Jim Smith is a poor man and his son was not guilty of any crime. Better help the officers to ferret out these crimes if possible.

We hope Mr. Sartain will be a law enforcing sheriff and our next grand jurors will take extra pains to bring the lawless to the bar of justice. Our little Sequachee News has done good, I know. Men don't like for their crimes to be written up. They flinch even though they are not named.

The Rev. Ferrill Tate and Bro. Elihu Fufts are on Battle Creek at Oak Grove to begin a meeting tomorrow, the 9th.

News is not to hunt for now. Wedding bells are ringing in our ears. Mrs. Bertha Randolph and Kay Tollett were quietly married yesterday. This is the second time the bride has married into our community. Hope she may get to stay with us this time. She is one of the most industrious young women of our county, lives seven miles beyond Crossville, and we are glad to have her back with us. The groom is one of our best and quietest young men, and we certainly wish them all success in life.
